<http://scholarshipsbank.com/fulbright-phd-scholarships-american-indonesian-exchange-foundation-aminef-usa/>

Preference will be given to applicants who serve or plan to serve as faculty members of state and private institutions of higher education in Indonesia and have not previously received any Fulbright scholarship.

Applicants will possess:

1. A Master's degree with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.00 scale).
2. Demonstrated leadership qualities.
3. A good understanding of Indonesian and other cultures.
4. A deep commitment to the chosen field of study.
5. A determination to return to Indonesia upon completion of the Fulbright program and to take up academic positions in higher education upon their return.
6. A minimum ITP TOEFL score of 575 or IBT TOEFL score of 90 or IELTS score of 6.5. Please note that TOEFL prediction or TOEFL-like score cannot be accepted.

Note: Based on recent changes in U.S. institution requirements, the TOEFL requirement for this program has been changed. The new requirement is as follows: "Generally, the TOEFL requirement for PhD program is 575 and above. However, a score of 550 and above will be considered for the following fields: non applied Physics, non applied Mathematics, and non applied Chemistry."

* (Grant duration is 3 years.)

DISCIPLINES

All disciplines and fields of study are eligible for a Fulbright award. The fields of study covered by the Fulbright scholarship program in the past were limited to the Social Sciences and Humanities. Since 2004, however, the policy has been changed to include also other disciplines with the exception of fields related to patient care or medical training or to continue their study at medical school.
