International LLB Scholarships, Cardiff University, UK

<http://scholarshipsbank.com/international-llb-scholarships-cardiff-university-uk/>

There are currently around 400 international students enrolled on undergraduate and postgraduate programmes, including the Bar Vocational Course and Legal Practice Course, within the School.

Cardiff Law School offers two types of scholarship to international students (excluding students from the European Union): first, a £1,000 Entrance Bursary to those who achieve excellence at A-level or the equivalent; and second, Merit Scholarships to those who achieve outstanding academic performance whilst studying on the LLB programme at Cardiff. Terms and conditions for the awards are detailed below.

Who is eligible for the award of an Entrance Bursary?

A £1,000 Entrance Bursary will be awarded to all students (EU not included) who enrol in the first year of the M100 LLB programme as full fee-paying students of international fee status, having achieved AAA at A-level or the local equivalent. Students whose fees are paid by a sponsor are not eligible for this bursary.

Who is eligible for a Merit Scholarship?

The Merit Scholarships are available to first and second year undergraduate students who are enrolled on the M100 LLB programme as full fee-paying students of international fee status. Students whose fees are paid by a sponsor are not eligible for a scholarship.

How much are the Merit Scholarships worth?

The scholarships are worth £1,000, £3,000 or £5,000 and can be earned in successive years. The maximum scholarship payable is £10,000 over the two years.

What are the criteria for award of the Merit Scholarships?

- The £1,000 scholarship will be awarded to students who achieve an average of 60-64% in their assessments at the end of either their first or second year of their degree.
- The £3,000 scholarship will be awarded to those who achieve an average of 65-69%.
- The £5,000 scholarship will be awarded to those who achieve an average of 70% or more.

How do I apply for a bursary or scholarship?

Students do not need formally to apply for these awards. All eligible students will automatically be considered.

When will I know if I have been successful?

Students who are eligible for a bursary or scholarship will receive a letter following publication of their results in the assessments at the end of the academic year.

If I am successful, when will I receive my award?

The award of a bursary or scholarship will result in the appropriate reduction in fees for the following academic year of study.

Terms and conditions for Entrance Bursaries and Merit Scholarships for International Students applying in 2011 – 2012

1. Cardiff Law School offers an 'Entrance Bursary' of £1,000 to all full-fee paying students of international fee status (EU not included) who enrol in the first year of the M100 LLB programme with AAA at A-level (excluding General Studies) or local equivalent.
2. Agreed equivalent grades are 37 points for International Baccalaureate, including 7, 6, 6 at higher level. Standards for other qualifications will be judged by the admissions tutor. The University's decision on whether a qualification is equivalent to AAA at A-level is final.

3. Full-fee paying first and second year international students who achieve academic excellence in their end of year assessments will be eligible for a merit scholarship of £1,000, £3,000 or £5,000.
4. For the purposes of these scholarships, 'Academic excellence' is defined as achieving a 60-64% average (£1,000 scholarship), 65-69% average (£3,000 scholarship), 70% or more average (£5,000 scholarship).
5. The maximum scholarship payable for undergraduates is £10,000 over two years. The scholarship results in a reduction of fees in the following academic year of study.
6. Students who are wholly state-funded or in receipt of other scholarships or funds which wholly or partly cover their tuition fees are not eligible for any of these awards.
7. Entrance bursaries and scholarships are subject to the student satisfying the examiners at the end of the academic year and proceeding to the next level of study.
8. There is no special application process for the awards. All eligible students will automatically be considered for an award.
9. Conditions are subject to change without notice. Awards are made to candidates who meet the terms and conditions current at the time of application.
