Student Exchange Scholarships, La Trobe University, Australia

<http://scholarshipsbank.com/student-exchange-scholarships-la-trobe-university-australia/>

La Trobe University welcomes approximately 400 exchange and study abroad students from all over the world each year.

If your institution is listed on our international exchange partners list you may be eligible to apply to study at La Trobe as an exchange student. If it is not, you can still get the La Trobe experience by applying to us as a Study Abroad Student.

Can I study at La Trobe as an exchange student?

Exchange students must be officially nominated by their home institution to study at La Trobe under a student exchange agreement. Your home institution can provide you with information about their nomination process.

What can I study?

Our programs are diverse and are known nationally for their quality, both in instruction and research across our five faculties:

- Education
- Health Science
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Business, Law and Economics
- Science, Technology and Engineering

For information on available units/subjects, check the University Handbook. Ensure that you read the information regarding prerequisites. For detailed unit/subject descriptions, use the unit code or name to find the unit in our Unit Search Database.

How do I apply?

Before you apply, ensure that you have read the information regarding prerequisites and English language requirements.

Please check that your Home Institution Exchange/Study Abroad Coordinator has informed La Trobe Abroad of your nomination.

Complete the Online application (Student Portal)

Application approval

Your application will be sent to the department/s of your choice for approval. This may take some time so please remain patient.

Receiving an offer

Depending on the success of your application, you will either receive a firm Letter of Offer or a Letter of Offer with conditions. The condition may be that you are required to choose other units or are required to complete an English Language unit upon arrival to La Trobe.

Accepting your offer

When the offer has been finalised and approved by the La Trobe Faculty, you will be sent offer acceptance forms including information on Overseas Student Health Cover. All forms need to be filled out and returned to La Trobe University. You will then be issued an electronic confirmation of enrolment and you are able to apply for a student visa.

Once you have accepted your offer, we will send you a My Life at La Trobe Guide which provides valuable information regarding our free airport reception service, accommodation and more. This guide is also available online

Calendar

General semester and orientation dates can be found in our Academic Calendar.

We recommend that you arrive in time for our Welcome Festival (Orientation) for international students. This program contains important information sessions, including enrolment assistance, and is also an excellent opportunity for you to meet other students and staff.

La Trobe organises additional social events for exchange and study abroad students including a pre-orientation camp that takes place during the weekend before the Welcome Festival. Information about the pre-orientation camp is sent to accepted students.

Costs

Exchange students do not pay any tuition fees to La Trobe but need to cover additional costs themselves. Estimated costs can be found in the My Life at La Trobe Guide.

La Trobe offers a limited amount of scholarships for incoming students. Eligible students will be contacted by the La Trobe Abroad team.
