University of Brighton

4 University of Brighton international research scholarships worth a reduction of 50 per cent off the cost of your tuition fees for your research programme (for up to a maximum of 3 years) are available to outstanding international research students in all areas of study.

Criteria

The criteria for awarding University of Brighton international research scholarships are as follows:

- academic merit (including English language ability)
- full fee-paying international student status
- acceptance onto a research programme at the University of Brighton

Eligibility

In order to be eligible to apply for a scholarship you must be a new full-time international research student, and must have applied to join a research programme at the University of Brighton, and been offered a place for 2013 entry.

How to apply

For the 2013 academic year, please email internationalscholarships@brighton.ac.uk with your applicant number in the subject line and we will send you a scholarship application pack. Please note application forms will only be sent to students holding unconditional offers for a full-time place with us.

Deadline for application

Applications for research scholarships are considered at three points during the academic year: the end of June, the end of October and the end of February.

Your application should be returned to the International Office to allow consideration at the appropriate scholarship committee meeting prior to your intended start date.

The decision of the research scholarship committee will be communicated to applicants soon after each of the meetings and that decision is final. Accompanying documentation will not be returned.
